Scotland report

- i. UCMLS had a stand at the annual Scottish Association of Language Teachers (SALT) conference on Saturday 3rd November. Marion Spöring and Hannah Doughty presented an updated version of the paper first presented at the UCMLS conference in September.
- ii. The following SCILT activities continue as previously: Language Linking Global Thinking, Business Brunches, and Mother Tongue Other Tongue. Word Wizard (the spelling bee) has had to be retired. (I can report on that verbally if anyone is interested.)
- iii. Upcoming engagements: 1 + 2 Strategic Implementation Group, Aberdeen 24th Jan JC as attendee; National Modern Languages Network (NMLN) meeting Stirling 7th Feb. JC as speaker: “Mind the gap: studying languages in first year at University”.
