(Candidate's statement should not exceed 150 words. It will be posted on the UCML website.)

I am a Lecturer in Spanish at The Open University with almost twenty years of experience in teaching Spanish language and linguistics at several Higher Education Institutions. As a result of my roles I have ample experience in distance education as well as the development and use of digital media for various levels of communication. I believe I am prepared to become more active in representing the interests of UCML by becoming its hon Secretary: having been the Secretary of the Foundation for Education and Research in Linguistics from 2000 to 2012 (Budapest, Hungary). This gave me experience in liaising with the board, learning strategies to ensure effective communication between the members and stakeholders, participating in budget preparation and administration, assisting in tax declaration and recording the minutes of meetings. I am also member of AHGBI and a regular attendant of ELE-UK. More information on my profile: <http://www.open.ac.uk/research/people/zb963#tab1>
