I am a lecturer in Translation Studies, Language and Politics and Spanish and a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. Through my work at 6 British universities, I have substantial experience working collaboratively. Also, in my role as a charity trustee, I strategically oversee the management and administration of the organisation, alongside other board members.

I have a commitment to service and to making languages thrive and I am an active advocate of the crucial role that languages play today and will play in the future. I readily share ideas and undertake long-term commitments and initiatives, such as projects that support diversity and inclusion, for example the websites Spanish Bytes and Lingua Bytes.

At this challenging time, I would be delighted to serve as the UCML Honorary Treasurer and participate in national strategy building, bringing to the steering and executive committee my knowledge about language, my dedication and my experience.
